

People here to help

Help available to Parents/Carers

The school has a wide range of people available to help with any issues they may have. Please ring the school office to request an appointment

Form Tutor

First point of contact for all routine issues and concerns

Achievement Coordinator

For issues concerning Academic performance, attendance, behaviour and uniform

People available to help Parents/Carers

Head of Department

For subject-specific information or concerns

Parent Partnership Worker

To support issues of attendance and pupil welfare

Headteacher

For issues not resolved satisfactorily after all other channels have been explored

Education Welfare Officer

To support students, parents and teachers in matters of behaviour and attendance

Pupil Support Managers

For issues concerning attendance, behaviour, uniform and academic performance

Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator

To support those children with special learning needs